EGG CARTON MANCALA

Because we need more games, too.
Mancala is one of the oldest two-player strategy games in the world and has been played throughout Asia and Africa for over 7,000 years.

The word "mancala" means to move in Arabic.

SUPPLIES

Empty egg carton
2 small bowls
Craft paint
Scissors
Empty box (optional)

48 rocks, shells, or beans! Or a mix of all three!
STEP 1

MAKE YOUR MANCALA BOARD!

Simply cut an egg carton in half to use the bottom section – in Mancala, these are pits.

Place two bowls at either end of the "board," or craft new ones out of cardboard (or the top of the egg carton!).
STEP 2

PAINT YOUR BOARD

Paint freely, or think about using pattern as you paint!

Pro tip! Cover your workspace with newspaper to reduce the mess!
Dip your beans, shells, or rocks in a disposable bowl of paint. After dipped, place in a box and shake them around until fully covered.

BONUS ART!
Put a piece of paper down on the bottom of the box to get an AWESOME process painting!
GAME TIME. (FINALLY!)
